WE have Accounts from our Army in Finland, that on the 17th of October the Regiments of Roſtow and Welikoluki having been ordered for Wibourg, a Detachment of 1000 Men was ſent for from thence to our Camp in their Stead. On the 8th we went on a general Forage, under the Convoy of 600 Foot and 300 Horſe, who took one Cannon with them, in order to give the Signal to the Foragers if neceſſary; and the rather, as we had Intelligence that the Enemy, on the other Side of the River Woxa, had made a Motion as if they intended to enter into our Frontiers, though it was not known how ſtrong that Party was, nor to what Side they intended to turn. On the 9th, the Regiment of Dragoons of Ingria was ordered for Wibourg, and from thence into Winter Quarters. The better to cover the Frontiers about Kexholm, a Detachment from the Regiment of Dragoons of Jamburg, and ſome Don Coſſacks, were ſent this Day to join the Troops that are there. On the 10th nothing remarkable happened. On the 11th we had Advice by a Deſerter, that the Enemy had divided their Army; only four Regiments of Foot and two of Dragoons remaining near Fridricsham under the Command of Count Lowenhaupt, the reſt, with two Generals, having marched to Kimiſch by the Tawaſthus Road. On the 12th we had Intelligence, that the Enemy, to the Number of 1000 Men, had appeared near Peter's Church, and were there laying a Bridge over the Woxa, of which Advice was immediately ſent to the Detachment poſted near Kexholm, and other neceſſary Diſpoſitions were made. On the 13th Advice came in from Kexholm, that on the 5th Inſtant our Don Coſſacks, with their Colonel Sebrakow and 40 Dragoons, had paſſed the Enemy's Frontiers and done great Damage; they began with the Village Iſiny, where there is a Swediſh Church, went round by Redijerwy, and ſo on almoſt as far as Peter's Church, and from thence returned to the Pariſh of Kirbur, having entirely ruined a great many Villages, and brought away two Dragoons and ſome other Priſoners.
